PP Caps and Closures

The Next Step in Packaging Your Products

Packaging Logistics has a large variety of stock closures in polypropylene. Whether your product is designed to be poured, squeezed, or sprinkled we can help save you time and effort at creating an ideal packaging solution. Offering unique characteristics, our closures are economical, effective in sealing, tamper-resistant, chemical-resistant, stylish, color coded, and they guard against leaks. We also offer a wide range of cap-lining materials to meet your packaging requirements.
